Philosophy of Care

Dundorans' philosophy of care is to provide care to meet the needs of all our residents, whilst maintaining and maximising each individual's independence and dignity.

- Person centred care plans are put in place for all our residents, and we work closely with our residents, their families, and their health workers in determining their individual care package.
- Staff are highly trained in nursing and residential care, with the majority holding specialist NVQ qualifications. There is always at least one trained nurse on duty at all times.
- Dundoran aims to provide a safe and secure environment, whilst ensuring the residents are able to fulfil the activities they desire in order to maintain and good quality of life.

Dundoran Nursing and Residential Home

Accommodation

All bedrooms are tastefully decorated, well furnished and some provide en-suite facilities. Some bedrooms are extremely large and stately, these can accommodate couples, or incorporate a separate seating area. Bedrooms can be personalised by residents bringing in their own furnishings and belongings. All bedrooms have TV, telephone points and a nurse call bell.

The home has numerous lounges, a lively dining room and a peaceful garden which is easily accessed.

Activities

Quality of life is an important factor to consider when selecting a nursing home. At Dundoran you will find all staff have a smile on their face as they enjoy working at the home. There is a family atmosphere, and the activities co-ordinator ensures all residents are able to take part in suitable activities if they wish. Outings and visiting entertainers are frequently arranged. There are also regular exercise sessions, sing-along's, reminiscence and games. The hairdresser is a very popular weekly visitor to the home.
